I've been on a mountain high... gazing to and fro...
I've been on a building tall... looking down below...
But the highest I will be... is when my savior comes for me...

Sailing up into the clouds... to our brand new home...

I'm gonna go higher... than I've ever gone before...
I'm gonna go higher... when I hear the trumpets blow...
That's the sound I long to hear...
When our savior shall appear...
I'm gonna go higher... than I've ever gone before...

There's planes that fly so very high... up above the clouds...
Swiftly out across the sky... past the speed of sound...
But if your heart has been made right... you will soar up to new heights...
Sailing up into the clouds... to our brand new home...

I'm gonna go higher... than I've ever gone before...
I'm gonna go higher... when I hear the trumpets blow...
That's the sound I long to hear...
When our savior shall appear...
I'm gonna go higher... than I've ever gone before...

I'm gonna go higher... than I've ever gone before...
I'm gonna go higher... when I hear the trumpets blow...
That's the sound I long to hear...
When our savior shall appear...
I'm gonna go higher... than I've ever gone before...

I'm gonna go higher... than I've ever gone before...
