[Cho:] well, it's so much fun...
When you're living your life for jesus
It's so much fun...
When you're living a life that's true...
So much fun...
When you know that you're headed for heaven...
And you'll be walking on air...
And never be singing the blues...
[Singing the blues]
[Singing the blues]

[1] I used to wear a smile on the top of my face...
It's what you call a double face...
On the surface... I was happy when I really was down...
In my heart I had an empty space...
Then I heard about jesus love...
And how it came down from above...
And it's so much fun...
Knowing where you're going today

[Cho:] well, it's so much fun...
When you're living your life for jesus
It's so much fun...
When you're living a life that's true...
So much fun...
When you know that you're headed for heaven...
And you'll be walking on air...
And never be singing the blues...

[2] well... my mama and my daddy tried to what's right...
They raised me to the lord every day and night...
They told me what I needed to become a man...
They said I needed jesus and to understand...
That it's so much fun... knowing where you're going today...

[Cho:] well, it's so much fun...

When you're living your life for jesus

It's so much fun...

When you're living a life that's true...

So much fun...

When you know that you're headed for heaven...

And you'll be walking on air...

And never be singing the blues...
