One of these days you're gonna climb to the top, the top of that mountain
One of these days you're gonna build a rig that changes the world
One of these nights you're gonna take this whole town by storm
One of these years you're gonna make a big mistake

Cause everyone's brave when the battle's over and the war is won
And everyone's safe when you're over there and ain't it fun? no
But what if it rains on your parade and everybody starts to run
How much would it take?

Don't know what I'm supposed to fight
But I got nothing better to do tonight

So I'm starting a

Revolution cause I know I'm not doin' all that I can
And I'm not gonna sit with my head in my hands
Thinkin' of ways to get back at the man no
Evolution is a necessary evil but I say
Goodbye, hello
Me and my people are here to say no

No no no, no no no

One of these days me and my friends are gonna walk down the street with All of us okay in shoes that we wear on our feet yeah
It's alright if it rains we keep on we won't accept defeat Cause at the end of the day we gotta live with what we see

Well it's all goin' down tonight
So tomorrow when we see the light
Yeah we're startin' a

Revolution cause I know I'm not doin all that I can
And I'm not gonna sit and take back who I am
Thinkin' of ways to get back at the man no
Evolution is a necessary evil but I say
Goodbye, hello
Me and my people are here to say no

Before the last train's passin' 'round
Before the sky comes crashing down

So before we run out of our time together

Let's start a
Revolution cause I know I'm not doin all that I can
And I'm not gonna sit and look on from the stands Thinkin' of ways to get back at the man
Evolution is a necessary evil but I say
Goodbye, hello
Me and my people are here to say no
