This light falls from hidden skies
This hidden portrait sees if anything goes wrong
My self reflected soul can't find
The reason being for the cruelty in our past

And still it lasts
Those happy months all went by so fast
Why do many people use this unforgotten word
To hard to find, what can I find

I'll only search for happy endings
Non-fiction journals into stories
So keep trying keep trying
So keep trying
And Queens keep on fighting
Don't stop from trying
So Queens, Oh Queens keep on fighting

Still I seem to speak the word I wonder if I'll stop
The hidden portrait sees if anything goes wrong
As I watch the couple sway together never fall
Will there ever be a time where differences don't fall

I looked for love
This sudden hatred will someday begin too fast
And still it lasts

I'll only search for happy endings
Non-fiction journeys into stories
So keep trying keep trying
So keep trying
And Queens keep on fighting
Don't stop from trying
So Queens, Oh Queens keep on fighting
