It was a long time ago
I have learned not to show
But I can still hear you laughing

I won't come as a friend
I'll never be so I won't pretend
You will never be forgiven

I have built it up inside
I have kept it to myself
I have built it up inside
It was for me and no one else
I have built it up inside
And I have kept it to myself
It was for me and no one else

It was a long time ago
Bruises fade but even though
I can't make it go away

I wont come as a friend
I'll get my vengance in the end
You will never be forgiven

I have built it up inside
And I have kept it to myself
I have built it up inside
It was for me and no one else
I have built it up inside
And I have kept it to myself
It was for me and no one else

I will even the score
Try me once more
And I'll break you down
I will even the score
Try me once more
I will even the score
Try me once more
And I'll break you down
I will even the score

Try me once more

I have built it up inside
I have kept it to myself
I have built it up inside
It was for me and no one else
I have built it up inside
And I have kept it to myself
It was for me and no one else

Even the score
Try me once more

I have built it up inside
And I have kept it to myself
It was for me and no one else
I have built it up inside
And I have kept it to myself
It was for me and no one else
