I saved me from myself again.
Let go of who I was back then.
If you ask me I know I'm better off.
Had to reconsider what I was fighting for.
Just to get myself together now.

And this time I'm gonna find a way
I'm gonna get a way back to you.
And this no matter what they say
No matter what I must do.
Yeah.

Try me, no matter what the cost
Can't let go, without you I'm lost.
The only thing that matters now.
Won't you reconsider, what were
Fighting for now.
Cause it all makes sense together.

And this time I'm gonna find a way
I'm gonna get a way back to you.
And this no matter what they say
No matter what I must do.
Yeah.
