(Chorus)

Well I'm hanging up my heart, in the lodge in the bunkhouse
I don't wanna be wounded by the wrong kind of love
No more rodeo dances, no more howling at the moonlight
I'm gonna give 'em up, and I'm hanging up my heart.

(Verse)

Late in the night, been working every day to keep you satisfied
It just ain't right to hear you say to me, you would let love fly

(Chorus)

Well I'm hanging up my heart, in the lodge in the
bunkhouse
I don't wanna be wounded by the wrong kind of love
No more rodeo dances, no more howling at the
moonlight
I'm gonna give 'em up, and I'm hanging up my heart.

(Verse)

If I were you, I'd try to understand and see my point of view
If I were you, I'd never be the one who treats me like you do

(Verse)

If I were you, I'd never have said goodbye, tore my world apart
If I were you, I'd never have played the game, you fooled me from the start

(Chorus)

Well I'm hanging up my heart, in the lodge in the
bunkhouse
I don't wanna be wounded by the wrong kind of love
No more rodeo dances, no more howling at the
moonlight
I'm gonna give 'em up, and I'm hanging up my heart

Yes, I'm gonna give 'em up, and I'm hanging up my heart
