For fear, my eyes are closed
I'll shut this out no more
Embrace this and I become the catalyst

And now it swells in me
Smash all my defenses down
I'll take this, I'll let this fire consume me

I will not, I will not
I will not fall, I will not fail
I pound the walls, I shake the cage
I will not fall, I will not fail

Let this fire consume me

This burning passion, it fills me with desire

And drives me and it drives my cause
I'm filled with reasons my reasons drive me further
Disdain for disbelief will stay the course

Oh, let the fire consume me
Let the fire burn
Let the courage flow through me
Let the fire burn

I pound the walls, I shake the cage
I will not fall, I will not fail
I pound the walls, I shake the cage
I will not fall, I will not fail

Oh, let the fire consume me
Let the fire burn
Let the courage flow through me
Let the fire burn

Let the fire consume me
