No reason to repent
No one will answer my prayers
And in the black of night
I call but no ones there

A lack of vision
A lack of sight
One God destroys me
Another brings me to life

They did it before we bring the world
All my time special a fire tube
A circle so basic we live our lives in fear
Your soul means nothing because nothing is real

We are all just moments in time
We come from nothing
And we're nothing when we die
We are all just an instant in time
We come from nothing
And we're nothing when we die

This is nothing
Confronts us every day
Arrogant these silly games we play
Why should we believe we are eternal
Why should we believe

So clever the primal urges look away
This side by side
There could be no other way
Take solace in ignorance
Return to nothing
And then nothing remain

We are all just moments in time
We come from nothing
And we're nothing when we die
We are all just an instant in time
We come from nothing
And we're nothing when we die

Eternity is so massive
We cannot comprehend
So take every last minute
And on nothing depend

We are moments in time
We come from nothing
We are moments in time
We are nothing

No man can comprehend

We are all just moments in time
We come from nothing
And we're nothing when we die
We come from nothing

No man can comprehend
