You should pick the words
Dividing your reason
Full use of power
Of the damnation

Unending fight
Yet you're supposed to prove them right
I cannot hide
I know that we must define

Why can't we see it
They're trying to make a slave of you
Take back your freedom
Take it back, take it back

I have such pride
In the land I thought was mine
I can't deny
Yet I fear my home is gone

Why can't we see it
They're trying to make a slave of you
Take back your freedom
Take it back, take it back

Why can't we see it
No one will list it down it's true
Take back your freedom
Take it back, take it back

Sleeping in, breaking the country we're sleeping
Rigorous, neglect then terminate reagent
Return to falling and all that we can deal
Take it back

Why can't we see it
They're trying to make a slave of you
Take back your freedom
Take it back, take it back

Why can't we see it
No one will list it down it's true

Take back your freedom
Take it back, take it back

Bored with light
Terrified

Why can't we see it
They're trying to make a slave of you
Take back your freedom
Take it back, take it back
