I will not relent, no, no;
Never live with defeat, never falter;
Just like the air that I breathe;
I will not choke on failure;
I will not choke on failure.

I am a mortal man;
But I'm not falling, I'm not broken yet;
I've never hurt so bad;
But I'll hold tight to my beliefs now.

I have suffered defeat, pain, loss;
Still I push to the edge, never falter;
For this cements my beliefs;
I'll remain my own master.

I will not relent, no, no;
Never suffer defeat, never falter;
For this cements my beliefs;
I will not choke on failure.
I am a mortal man;
But I'm not falling, I'm not broken yet;
I've never hurt so bad;
But I'll hold tight to my beliefs now.

I am a mortal man;
But I'm not falling, I'm not broken yet;
I've never hurt so bad;
But I'll hold tight to my beliefs now.

[Guitar solo]

I will not relent;
I will not relent, no, no;
I will not relent;
Never suffer defeat, never falter;
I will not relent, no, no;
Never suffer, never falter;
I will not relent, no, no;
Never suffer, never falter.
