Learn shit the hard way, takin' the wrong way
Always believing the lies they tell
And I've learned my lessons well

Always the wrong place, always the wrong time
Always end up with my pride on the shelf
I always fuck myself

Sorry, I'm anti-social
But people make me sick
Give me just one good reason
I should put up with this

Every time I turn my back
I've got a knife in it, I've got a knife in it
Every time I turn my back
I've got a knife in it, I've got a knife in it

Never believing, you were deceiving
Telling me shit that I wanted to hear
And now I don't trust myself

I gave you money, I gave you shelter
I gave you everything I had Everything I had

Sorry, I'm anti-social
But people make me sick
Give me just one good reason
I should put up with this

Every time I turn my back
I've got a knife in it, I've got a knife in it
Every time I turn my back
I've got a knife in it, I've got a knife in it

I should have learned this by now
go)
I should have known you by now (Waiting, waiting and I'm still here waiting, waiting for you to go)

I should have learned this by now
go)
I should have known you by now

Sorry, I'm anti-social
But people make me sick
Give me just one good reason

Every time I turn my back
I've got a knife in it, I've got a knife in it
Every time I turn my back
I've got a knife in it, I've got a knife in it

Sorry, I'm anti-social
But people make me sick

Every time I turn my back
I've got a knife in it, I've got a knife in it
Every time I turn my back
I've got a knife in it, I've got a knife in it

Sorry, I'm anti-social [Incomprehensible]

Sorry, I'm anti-social

Sorry, I'm anti-social
