Nowadays it's not easy
To be truly understood by someone
You can say that you're lucky
When you find that's precious friend by your side
Amen for something you don't believe
Seeking your way and your freedom

Everyday let me land you
Everyway as a part of me
Everyday with your freedom
Trusting me as my best friend for life

Here I stand as a man
To tell you how I feel a future could be
Counting the rules of society
Building the path for our freedom

Everyday let me land you
Everyway as a part of me
Everyday with a freedom

Having trusting each other as best friends to

You expect my passions
And it leads you to my heart
Cuz without you they would fall a part

I'm onto seize the day
Now I see future in your eyes
I've been living in a dream with this (?) life
Follow me in this dream of mine
One more time

Amen for something we don't believe
Seeking a way and a freedom

Everyday let me land you
Everyway as a precious part of me
Everyday with your freedom
Trusting you as my best friend as my wife
