"She's in Hollywood"

Don't know where she's going
Don't know what she's running from
She just seems so restless
Just wanting so much more

Anything for a fast thrill
Anything just to make her feel whole
Hiding underneath her make-up
Her body looks young but her mind is old

Yeah you see her there every night
She'll be dancing in neon lights
She's got everything figured out
She's in Hollywood tonight

Yeah you can have her if you want to
You can have her if it makes you feel whole
Hiding underneath her make-up
Her body is hot but her mind is cold
