I looked at things, I looked at you
I'm in two too long

Climb in too...
The heart surround is leading
In through the hole
That's you living your way

Climbing down off something new
Beaten and blue
But true
It's nothing new
It's for you

Say it's true, say it's true
I want to keep the same things too
It's just like you...
To say we'd keep the same things

Causing scenes is so like you
It's nothing new
It's you

Unspoken no: our silent glow
Promised we'd show
But jet-hot lifeforms aimed low

It's just an unspoken no, unspoken no
It's an unspoken no
And it's just like you, it's true
