Speak, speak to me. You're my addiction. Breathe, I Breathe you in. So I can hold my convictions, before I Let them slip away. This is a sacrifice I'm making for Myself, and it slips away. I slip away into the depths of A nightmare. The demons of my soul release. My flesh is Weak, it keeps eating me from the inside out. Just let me

Slip away... And now it's pulling me deeper, I hear her Calling my name. And now it's pulling me deeper... we're Sinking now, I'm sinking now! Save me from myself! It Slips away...
