Saw you standing there, unaware of how I feel I saw you look at me, would you dare to come near
I saw you smile at me, can you taste my fear
I saw you glare at me, well at least now it's clear

I just quietly play around
You've changed me now
And I'm scared of what I've found

You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til I break you
You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til you break my heart
You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til I can't break free
You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til we break apart

Heard you found someone, now we're all done and I still want more
Then I heard you lingering, now you want me just like before
Now you take the best of me and leave me crumpled on the floor
Yeah, and you'd burn the rest of me, a casualty you can't ignore

I just quietly play around
You've changed me now
And I'm scared of what I've found

You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til I break you
You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til you break my heart
You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til I can't break free
You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til we break apart

Just try to push me

Play around
You've changed me now
And I'm scared
Just try to push me
Play around
You've changed me now
And I'm scared of what I've found

You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til I break you
You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til you break my heart
You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til I can't break free
You make me want to hold you
Hold you 'til we break
Apart
