You huddle alone, you cave to the pain
You bruise and you bleed on your hands and your knees
And you take it again
So wipe off those tears, come in from the rain Take my hand and see my new reality and see their torments in vain

Forever is never and never again
I'll wrap you in my arms and I'll protect you when
The hatred draws closer and closer embrace
Together we fight it, together we face, the words
The words
The words
The words

We'll exchange our vows, an orange ring of flame
For with the right glance we'll see devils dance
All dispelled with my name
Not parted in death, our serenity
Our souls will move past all the scum and the trash into eternity

Forever is never and never again
I'll wrap you in my arms and I'll protect you when
The hatred draws closer and closer embrace
Together we fight it, together we face, the words
The words
The words
The words

Forever is never and never again
I'll wrap you in my arms and I'll protect you when
The hatred draws closer and closer embrace
Together we fight it, together we face
Forever is never and never again
I'll wrap you in my arms and I'll protect you when
The hatred draws closer and closer embrace
Together we fight it, together we face, the words
The words
