Ahhhh
Quite a suprise
What an ingenious device
Boredom encompasses my time
I don't know what I should do

Southbound Pachyderm

Indulging a moment of your time
Seldom the breeder of lies
But you won't believe that it's true

Ahhhh
They take to the skies

Southbound Pachyderm
Pinholes through cardboard at the sun
Passing the bucks by one by one
Leaving nothing in return....

Watching the majesty blow past
Shpeculating who should be the last
Savoring my piece of pie

And there is no reprise
Ahhh,they're filling the skies

Southbound Pachyderm
