"Walk The Wire"

Once again I walk the wire,
With the entire town on my shoulders.
I've learned the ways of embrace,
But now I'm ready to change my place.
I'm ready to change.

I'm afraid I'm cracking up.
I'm afraid I'm coming out again.

I've seen the pain bring us to our knees.
I'll never care about this disease.
So when the time comes to be reborn,
I'm gonna walk with the damned.
Walk with the damned.

Be still.

(Hold on be still... Just walk with the dead.)
