You don't know anything about me

Here, outside, any place you like

I have been listening to this crap all day
About how I get everything I want
And how my life is so great
And everybody else's life sucks
Well, you wanna know something?
You don't know anything about me!
You take all the bad luck you've had in your entire
Life
It wouldn't fit into half of what's happened to me in
The last 24 hours
So messing me up may not be as easy as you think
But if you wanna try, bring it on!

You take all the bad luck you've had in your entire

Life
It wouldn't fit into half of what's happened to me in
The last 24 hours
So messing me up may not be as easy as you think
But if you wanna try, bring it on!

Here, outside, any place you like

You don't know anything about me

You take all the bad luck you've had in your entire
Life
It wouldn't fit into half of what's happened to me in
The last 24 hours
So messing me up may not be as easy as you think
But if you wanna try, bring it on!
