All this Corruption fills our streets
While the innocent left her to bleed
No way out of what we've done
Now we have to face what we have become

So where did we go wrong
To need someone to change us
To reach down and to save us
From what we have become... x2

Save us from this place
Save us from ourselves
Come to me, Come to me, come to me
Where are the heros now

Whole lives destroyed in just one day
The streets arn't safe for our children to play
Where are those super heros now
The ones that we think we all can trust in

So where did we go wrong
To need someone to change us
To reach down and to save us
From what we have become... x2

Save us from this place
Save us from ourselves
Come to me, Come to me, come to me
Where are the heros now
Come to me, come to me, come to me
Where are the heros...

I need just a little place to Break out somewhere to get away to
I can't seem to break out
I just can't break free

So where did we go wrong
To need someone to change us
To reach down and to save us
From what we have become... x2

Save us from this place
Save us from ourselves
Come to me, Come to me, come to me
Where are the heros now
Come to me, come to me, come to me
Where are the heros
Where are the heros now
WE ARE THE HEROS.
