The fading light of day lingers on your sleeping face
My lover's lullaby lately lost it's tender grace
Somewhere in your dreams tonight
Let my lips come close to you and hold me tight
After all I hardly bear
To turn my back to loving arms and leave you there

Chorus:

Babe, I won't forget you
And I won't regret you
You won't forgive you
Anymore, no more

We said our first hello beneath a blue umbrella sky
A simple moment shared by strangers who were passing by

People say when you're in love
It seems as if tomorrow almost never comes,
No never comes
After all your loving touch
Through my eyes of love to me it means so much
And that's why

Chorus:

I won't forget you
And I won't regret you
You won't forgive you
Anymore, no more

I won't forget you
And I never let you
Anymore, no more

Chorus
