No longer can I conceal I have been faking
That somewhere in my heart I feel a love so true
And everytime I see your smile
I find my love for you worthwhile
And if you take me for romance I'll fall in love again

* We are snowflakes in the wind
We are feathers in the storm
We are snowflakes in the wind
We're like feathers in the storm

I don't know how far we go until it's over.
And then I don't know how lovers know how much it hurts.
Needles don't catch my fall. I'm softly drowning
I'm longing for the chance to do what lovers do
You make it feel so naturally
You're bringing out the best in me
Now at the end of every day I know I'm not alone

[Repeat *]

I don't know how far we go until it's over
And then I don't know how lovers know how much it
hurts

[Repeat * , *]
