"Until You See"

You traded all your tears so I could see a happy face You sat all alone and read the writing on the wall
You broke your heart and banged your cool up as you fell from grace You should've hung the net before you took the fall

The lines are pretty long here, but you'll stand here anyway

Chorus:
Until you see this ain't going over There's nothing left to show for Till you see Time ain't gonna make up for the times you'd never wake up for me

I watched you build a castle on the beach one rainy day I saw it fall apart and roll out with the tide
I think there's something metaphoric that I'm trying to say Open up your soap box and just crawl inside
The lights are on but no ones home Stand there in the dark

Chorus
