Deep in contemplation we walk the streets with our
Heads and our spittits down.
They've sold our wings so we can't reach the sky, by
Foot you can only get so far.
We're just marionettes of their contracts. We are
Bought and sold.
Nothing to loose, nothing to admire.
We're just marionettes of their contracts. We are
Bought and sold.
Nothing to loose.

We're getting tired more and more, until we fall, we
Hit the bottom,
Our hearts are sored, can't find the reason of why we
Live in the shadows,
All we've believed in was just a lie.

Watch the fight with different eyes, see what hides
Behind their smiles.
The truth is buried and concealed. They tell us what we Should believe.
The deny us everything we need, our individuality.
We've been locked inside this cage.
Time for anger, time for rage.
Watch the fight with different eyes, see what hides
Behind their smiles.
The truth is buried and concealed. They tell us what we Should believe.

We trip, we fall, we're out, we're lying on the floor.
We trip, we fall, we're lying on the floor.
