I hide my face in front of you. I'm scared when you look
Into my eyes.

I hide my face in front of you. I'm scared when you look
Into my eyes.

Release the chains around your insides. Too complicated,
Too hard to understand.
Your sweetness makes my skin sweat with fear. I fight a Battle that I never can win.

A gentle kiss of poison lips. Look for the room behind
Your eyes.
You're not worth my time, you're not worth my time.

Don't plunge a knife into my back. You start a fire in my Heart.
And burn all out of me, you're not worth my time.

I hide my face in front of you. I'm scared when you look
Into my eyes.
I hide my face in front of you. I'm scared when you look
Into my eyes.
Is there a meaning to your sickness, of your Condescending attitude.
Inspired of a clouded sky. A book full of your tragedies.

Pull out your knife of my back!
