"With The Absence Of Mind"

The absence of mind, the absence of mind.
I've scratched my knees, take a look at you and ask
Myself what have I done?
With the absence of mind, I can't stop bleeding again.
So forgive me father, I can't stand this anymore.
I close my eyes and let it pass by.

A fire starts burning and fills my heart with
Atrocities.
A fire starts burning and fills my heart with passion,
To see me standing naked in front of you.
An Illusion that you feel sick while I'm just staring
At the sun.
I've scratched my knees.

And when I look at you my hands are shaking, I'm Feeling cold.
I tried to be the perfect son for you, I guess I did it
Wrong.
Can't fucking stand you, when you look at me your eyes
Are turning back.
There'll be a great deal of she'd blood if you come too
Close to me.
Just like the secrets in your head. Just like the
Secrets in your head.
Your anger makes my, my body red from blood.
Just like the secrets in your head. Just like the
Secrets in your head.
Your anger makes my, my body red from blood.

A passion, to see me standing naked in front of you.
An Illusion that you feel sick while I'm just staring
At the sun.
So forgive me father, I can't stand this anymore.

A fire starts burning and fills my heart with
Atrocities.
A fire starts burning and fills my heart with a,
I start to bleed when you touch me, I can feel your
Blade under my skin.
Start to bleed, can you feel it.

Now this is me in front of you, one hand on the barrel
Of a gun.
This is me, with my gun. I start to bleed when you
Touch me,
I can feel your blade under my skin.
Just like the secrets in your head. Just like the
Secrets in your head.
Your anger makes my, my body red from blood.
Just like the secrets in your head. Just like the
Secrets in your head.
Your anger makes my, my body red from blood.
