"Awake"

Visit "Awake" on MotoLyrics.com

Don't you know the years have passed
And the rain's fallen down
I would do anything for you
You would leave it all behind

Is it true or is it something you want to
You are proud and in command
The broken heart feels awake
But I feel again when it says

Oh is this all I do
There's nothing I wanna do
Can't you believe that it's the only way
When you smell the blood of the years

Don't you know my years have come
But my love came too late
Your intension was much too strong
How can I live my own life
