What do you see?
Supply and demand,
too many brands.
So much to be,
everything's there,
nobody's aware.

How they can all make a stand
I've got a brand new plan,
I just couldn't start it today.

And how do you feel?
Time to get up;
we're cream of the crop.
Is it for real?
Time to react,
to cover the cracks.

The fissures of all broken time,
I've got a brand new plan.
I just couldn't start it today.

But it's just a minor setback;
and even the strong sometimes can cave.
It's a minor setback;
and inside I know that I'm brave.
Yeah!

What do you hear?
Too many sounds and noises around.
And what do you care?
Everythings there,
nobody's aware.

In wildlife of modern man,
I've got a brand new plan.
It just wouldn't start today

But it's just a minor setback;
and even the strong sometimes can cave.
It's a minor setback;

and inside I know that I'm brave.

It's a minor setback;
and even the strong sometimes can cave.
It's a minor setback;
and inside I know that I'm brave.
I know that I'm brave,
yeah!

Yeah!

It's just a minor setback;
and even the strong sometimes can cave.
It's a minor setback;
and inside I know that I'm brave.

It's just a minor setback;
and even the strong sometimes can cave.
It's a minor setback;
and inside I know that I'm brave,
yeah!
