I swear Iâ€™ve heardâ€¦
the voice of the night

Itâ€™s a gloomy place
But I need to rest
Iâ€™ve roamed away my entire life
At the very end my old aching eyes
Desert the day, canâ€™t stand the light
And now I think I hear
The voice of a thousand million stars
The nightâ€¦ the voice of the night

Night, Oh Night
If I find at last my shelter in your arms
Will you let me in and stay?
Do you swear youâ€™ll take me there?
Oh Iâ€™m not afraid and Iâ€™m still alive

Night, Oh Night
Thereâ€™s a riddle to be solved within the dark
And thereâ€™s a miracle in each sound
That heals my scars now that Iâ€™m hurt
And Now I can hear the sweet owlâ€™s lullaby
The night, the voice of the night
Will you let me find my song among those notes?
Golden sun is hidden and moon caress is cold
Will you let me find my song among those notes?
My heart needs to get warmer and it canâ€™t wait for dawn
It canâ€™t wait for dawn

The voice of the nightâ€¦
