Baby

I finally know what im going after
I'm learning to let in all the laughter
Holy Moley youÂ´re so funnnny
You Crack me up, you crack me up

Look out for dreams that keep returning
'Cause magic ainÂ´t no hand-me-down yearning
You feel it, you want it, the way I want you babe

Traveling by choo-choo train
We know where we just donÂ´t know when
Like some everlasting onion that I love

Never heard a better bad joke said outloud
You flip-flop and I wall out
Can you believe it
I canÂ´t believe it but it's true

You're giving eighty billion years of giggling
A whole new world to live in
But this one's real, this one's real, this one's real

Like some hog tied Kangaroos
You be one and I'll be one too
We play it goofy or we play it cool

Everything that happened
You know it don't mean a thing to us
'Cause so much is gonna happen
Because

You showed me a sunset overflowing
But who cares where it's going
As long as you're next to me
