If I could write
A verse or two
I would dedicate my song to you
And I would know
Just what to do
Cause you are my inspiration too

If I dedicate my song to you
Maybe you would make my dreams come true
If I knew the magic words to say
Maybe I can steal your heart away

Maybe I can steal your heart away

Maybe I can steal your heart away

If I should write
A line or two
I would dedicate my poem to you
And I would know
Just what to do
Now that I have found someone like you

If I dedicate my poem to you
Maybe you would make my dreams come true
If I find the magic words to say
Maybe I can steal your heart away

Maybe I can steal your heart away

Maybe I can steal your heart away

In everything
I try to do
I will dedicate myself to you
Look in my end eyes
And you will find
Nothing in the world can change my mind

If you're gonna turn me down this time
Then you're gonna break this heart of mine

If you don't believe the words I say
How'm I gonna steal your heart away

Maybe I can steal your heart away

Maybe I can steal your heart away

If I dedicate myself to you
Maybe you will make my dreams come true
If I knew the magic words to day
Maybe I can steal your heart away

Maybe I can steal your heart away

Maybe I can steal your heart away

Maybe I can steal your heart away

Maybe I can steal your heart away
