I tell them all the truth for no secret lies this time
Once upon a world way before your loss
So look out I fear that they follow near
And in the courthouse Kevin sentenced rope to neck

They don't hear the serpent that burns your ear
Baby look out

Leaving well enough alone is no choice of yours to make
A guilty says the proof, this town has no room for you
So look out I fear that they follow near
From down the gallows you'll swing for all the kids to see

They don't hear the serpent that burns your ear
Or the coward that sits alone in your head with itch
Baby look out

They don't hear the serpent that burns your ear
Or the coward that sits alone in your head with itch
Baby look out

'Cause I'm so sorry that you could ever
I'm so sorry for you, you'll never love again
