ft. Chris Brown, Tank & Terrace Martin

If you're ready for running baby, please come on
If you're ready for running baby, please come on Pour something unzipped, don't want conflict

No, no, no real light, let's go Right where we need to, wanna eat, you prepare the feeble
You prepare the feeble, man, gosh, I'm tryina see you
When we leave here I'mma swank, though I'mma bring a little drug, a little drug, girl
And you already know what this gonna lead to And I'mma do what I need to Girl, them tights are see-through, go on, take 'em off Bounce on it till you make it soft Fuck the ' oh, yeah, yeah, I'm off of my drug And you know that, phone ring and fuck her, that's the throw back
That's a new thing and I'm looking for a brand new booty

So lay your head back
Spread both of your legs, baby
Oh, girl, oh, girl, just let me deep inside you
So lay your head back
And just let it come on down
I got you, baby
Just let it come down

Fuck in the house, we can do it in public
Fill the drink when I rub it I'm inside of your loving And you don't even trip when you found I done fuck on you, darling
That was a long time ago
Your body cold, I'mma wear it out like a designer coat Pop that thing and deep
You know a funny young nigga with a lot of strong, for real
Had his own career, smoked his joint right here

While we ride around earlier, you madder bitch, my dear
So I know why you fucking with me now
'Cause I'm hitting and licking that cat
Till that motherfucker meow

So lay your head back
Spread both of your legs, baby
Oh, girl, oh, girl, just let me deep inside you
So lay your head back
And just let it come on down
I got you, baby
Just let it come down

You gotta give me something, baby
Lay your head back, lay your head back

Can I take over from here?
Head back, your head back, baby
Go to that bathroom, go wipe that thing down
Make up, I got you, my time, I's in charge now Lick it up, lick it up till you fall out
Beat it up, beat it up, make it call out Stick it up, stick it up
Oh, mama, when the mouth is in there
Wanna hear you screaming
Shit's about to get real, thirsty, girl, I need water Gonna need a refill, drinking all of your water How you know what to do? Tell me, baby, who taught you?
Tell me girl, what to do, tell him Teezy taught you

So lay your head back
