Once the patient breathes
You slide into the world
The womb you have to leave
To be a boy or girl

When the man steals your nature with his watch
All in time a bit of peace, in time the chaos stops
Yellin' but you just can't find the words
Gaia, still loves all the pieces, of her jigsaw earth

Gaia...

Jacob left in the dark of night, hopped into his car
Finding street-wise Sandibel , and a volunteer chauffeur
Didn't see no reason to take a third
Gaia still loves all the trees, home to all the birds

Gaia's jigsaw earth is free.
Early in the morning, rise and shine, and the world is callin'.
Gaia's actuality.
Sky, the ground, and a place to roam,
Circus in a bubble, a place called home.

Jacob sat on empty, Sandibel got tied up
The volunteer put on her clothes and pilfered her make-up
Guaranteed to be back for them soon
Gaia makes and takes the rain how ever opportune

Gaia's jigsaw earth is free.
Early in the morning, rise and shine, and the world is callin'.
Gaia's actuality.
Sky, the ground, and a place to roam,
Circus in a bubble, a place called home.

I gathered myself, and rubbed my eyes, and wondered, did she know?
That I put glass and concrete beams as tall as trees can grow.

That I tear down the oldest statues, faces who've grown long

She may have known, may not have cared, continued with her song...

Gaia's jigsaw earth is free.

Early in the morning, rise and shine, and the world is callin'.

Gaia's actuality.

Sky, the ground, and a place to roam, Circus in a bubble, a place called home.
