

The Dismemberment Plan "Academy Award"

Visit "Academy Award" on MotoLyrics.com

Playing for the bleachers now
Letting them beat you and showing them how Dangling yourself from the cross
All out of nails, but here's your hammer, boss
And the Academy Award for ridiculous over-acting goes to you
So get on up there and give us a speech
Taking all the attention away
After your performance, there's no one left to nominate
Dangling yourself from the cross
All out of nails, but, uh, here's your hammer, boss
And the Academy Award for embarrassing melodrama
goes to you
So get on up there and give us a speech
Don't forget the little people
Who never were around
And the bigger ones who kept you down
Always knew you could do it! We always knew you could do it!
We always knew you could do it
Jason Caddell!
Don't forget the little people
Who never were around
And the bigger ones who let you down
Always knew you could do it.
We always knew you could do it.
We always knew you could do it.
You couldn't do it without us!
We always knew you could do it.

Visit The Dismemberment Plan page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.