As it rolls, flowing from the past
Leaving us tired to the last
So it goes, came to an end, the past
Alone and tied to the mast
Looking back through times that could have been Dreamin' of places I should have seen
Leave me be, leave me to find the way
Those dreams bring me down without reasonin'

And I call, call your name
Leave me be, I'll find a way
And I hope, I hope and pray
But I know that I would never learn to play the game

Turning round, got you in a sidelong glance
Dreamin', shadows behind me dance
As it is, that's all I want to see
Not for me to walk in a trance

And I call, I call your name
Leave me be, out cryin' in the rain
And I hope, I hope and I pray
But I know that I would never learn the game

As it rolls, flowing from the past
Leaving us tied to the mask
So it goes, T-two-it,
Two within a cast
Alone and tied to the past
