Sanctuary is his goal--to the devil sold his soul-- resurrection this damn curse--everything gets worse-- cold air rushes through The air--what you've become is not fair--devastation all you see--dark reality--in this hell where you live-- nothing more has to Give--warning to his enemies--i will make you bleed-- get his pound of flesh--revenge in his eyes--body laid to rest--burned and Torched to death--aura of their sin--vengeance will begin--penance will be served--get what you deserve.
