So I've been thinking about what I need to do.
Should I stay here baby or hide it all from you.
I'm scared of changing all those things that we have made.

So please tell me if you want me to say

(chorus)

That I want to be the one you believe in.
I wanna be the love that you need.
And I wanna be the one, who will never go away.
And I wanna be the life that you leading.
And I wanna be the air that your breathe in.
And I wanna be the one who will never go away.

So now I'm finding a reason, to hold on.
Cause when I see your face I never feel alone.
I'm standing here and I'm waiting
I'm seeing what we've created, to be as one.
And I want you to know

(chorus)

And I wanted you to know that I'll never let you go.
And I'll always hold you close for all of your days.
So hear the words I say

(chorus)

I'm standing here and I'm waiting
I'm seeing what we've created.
Love me girl, and don't let me go...
