My knight and shining armor was a fool in disguise
I was single and surprised when you came into my life
I looked into your eyes and all I could see
Was me and you together, living perfectly
But I was wrong
Now I'm sitting here singing this song
And know that it took too long to realize
My head wasn't right
You gunna miss me when I'm gone

(Hook)
They come and they go
He's still out there
I know
You've got to count the?
Boy I'd rather be alone

(Chorus)x2
It wasn't meant to be
Meant to be
Meant to be

You claimed that you are one of a kind
But I come a crossed your kinds all the time
I was stupid, I was dumb.
I was silly, I was young
I liked you a lot but you ain't the one
It was cupcake, no fillin
And without you baby I'm willing
To find somebody who was meant for me
Me and you together could never be

(Hook)
They come and they go
He's still out there
I know
You've got to count the?
Boy I'd rather be alone

(Chorus)x2
It wasn't meant to be

Meant to be
Meant to be

(Hook)
They come and they go
He's still out there
I know
You've got to count the?
Boy I'd rather be alone

(Chorus)x2
It wasn't meant to be
Meant to be
Meant to be
