Leave Me

Words of darkness in a twisted place, walls drip
sickness
Tales of a dreaming man, all storms turn into a sigh
Looking at the tower faces of destruction laughing
Many a tree fallen, in no, in no memory
Show me the love in this,
Leave me now

Days are dying behind you, and a life so lost
For you killed a man, and sorrow...
It haunts you never
And now at the graves of so many words
I find my tears and forced confusion

In this cup I found the poisons of regret
All spirits abandoned
The mind of many halls and empty thoughts
For in this, we are dead
We are dead

Words of darkness in a twisted place, walls drip
Tales of a dreaming man, all storms turn into a sigh
Looking at the tower faces of destruction laughing
Many a tree fallen, in no... in no memory
Show me the love in this,
Leave me now
