Disillusioned,
By all you've seen.
Men who tell lies
And hypocrisy.
You take all your pain,
You stand alone.
Struggle with life,
Peace never known.

Come to God,
Come to peace.
Find real love,
Find real strength.

Things of the past
Are leaving you scared,
You have become
Bitter and hard.

Come to God,
Come to peace.
Find real love,
Find real strength.

No greater love
A man has known,
To lay down His life
For you alone.
For you are my son,
Dead in your sin.
But you can be made
Alive again.

Come to God,
Come to peace.
Find real love,
Find real strength.
