It must be how you look
When you woke up
Or got choked up
Ruby eyes bloodshot

See the way you cant sit still
With no mention
But attention
For a dead flower

So I write write write
All the things I didnt miss
And despite spite spite
My conclusion is

Nobody wants you
Nobody wants you
Like I do

It must be what you said
Just the wrong time
To be laughing
What goes through that head
And you wont just act you age
So you dance it
Too romantic
Put me on display

So I write write write
All the reasons I should quit
Change my mind mind mind
Cause my conclusion is

Nobody wants you
Nobody wants you
Like I do
Like I do
Like I do

Excuses, abuses
Youve used me up

My patience, cant take it
Ive had enough

It must be meant to be
When you make up
From the breakup
So now I see
It must me how you looked
When you woke up
Right here next to me

I made a list you found it
And you left and said were through
So Im here outside your window
In the dark and calling you
It opens hear you breathing
My fingers through you hair
Tell me
Tell me
Tell me
Tell me

Nobody wants you
Nobody wants you
Like I do
Like I do
Like I do
I do
I do
I do
I do
I do
I do
