"Place Blame Here"

Overwhelmed by the weight of the world
The current state of the world
It gets tough to hold my head up high
Cracking a smile feels like a task now
It feels so unfamiliar
Street lamps and cross walks, a cold night
I realise, in the constant face of negativity
I'll strive with one thing in mind
Make me your favourite scapegoat
(I have myself)
If that's what you need for self security
It's not gonna be affecting me
I got this one thing you can't deny
I always have me by my side
Overwhelmed by the weight
Of criticism and constant disbelievers
I find their words now a fuel
To this burning fire inside
You only push me forward
You could never hold me back
Attack me with what you can
I won't lay down, I take my stand
I will always have by my side
You can't deny this
You can't deprive this
