Oh no, it's you again crashing on the door
Don't think I'll rebuttal once again
I don't know why you keep coming back for more
With someone I use to call a friend
I'm not so crossed the way with half the things you say
It doesn't work you anymore
I see you farther, farther down on your knees

Cause you've gone too far to fall
Yes, you got too far to fall

I stay up all night just to listen to the news
Again and again and time and time again
But all I ever get are old mess kind of news
This time, it's got to be the end
You shouldn't shout about it, the way you do
It doesn't make any sense at all
There's no doubt about it, no doubt at all

Cause you've gone too far to fall
Yes, you got too far to fall

You've never felt quite the fall
Too far, too far to fall

You shouldn't shout about it, the way you do
It doesn't make any sense at all
There's no doubt about it, no doubt at all

Cause you've gone too far to fall
Yes, you got too far to fall
Yes, you got too far to fall
Yes, you got too far to fall
