"All out" cried the boy
And put the girl in danger
Whose only weapon was to believe in love
"All out" but don't say forever
Too late for re-arrangement
He's already thinking of another face
And she's drawing on the memory she can't erase

They're moving on
Keep a moving it yeah
They're moving on
We'll make it this time
I know we're gonna make it this time.
Now the weight of intention carried the motion
And the damage was over done and what started as a bid of independence
Has ended with a starting gun
And he's wishing that he never said "All out" but the words just get lost in space
And you know its's such a lonely place
When you realise you've lost that face
Counter revolution has taken place

We're moving on
Keep a moving it yeah
We're moving on
We'll make it this time
I know we're gonna make it this time.
