everytime i have a thought a memory of all the bad things that you did to me we hehehe
everybody talks
everyone was shocked
You nearly broke my heart when i heard that it was all wrong
that it was all wrong
why did you do it
why'd you say it all again.

why did you say it all along (all along)
why did you do it
why did you say it i want to know(i wanna know)
why did you do it
why did you do it
why did you do it say it all again I wanna know

it wasn't about the truth wasn't about the lie It's just the fact that you made me cry you did n't even try i really want to sigh i'm sorry but i have to say good-bye say good-bye you made me cry you didn't even know that you made me cry...
