Contrived and treacherous - You can live the life you choose

Contrived and treacherous - Don't subject us to your views

I remember when you kissed our asses back then
Now you deny it just to show off for your friends
You can lie away but you can't lie to yourself
So take your fuckin' comments and keep them to yourself

Contrived and treacherous - You can live the life you choose

Contrived and treacherous - Don't subject us to your views

Contrived and treacherous - You can live the life you choose

You just can't let go of the past that passed on you
Years down the road you still watch the things we do Moving on can sometimes be the hardest road but we don't like you and your games are getting old

Contrived and treacherous - You can live the life you choose

Contrived and treacherous - Don't subject us to your views

Contrived and treacherous - You can live the life you choose

Contrived and treacherous - Don't subject us to your views

There was a time when I would put up with your shit but times have changed and left you out so get a fuckin' grip

I won't walk down the same road as you
All the words that you cried seem justified
All those lies, I'd call it a sickness
