its been cold for a week
we dont talk
we dont speak
turn away from each other when we lie in bed i dont understand whats goin on in our head

how the pride
makes us blind
to the hurt
that we both know is killing us slowly inside why cant you and i decide?
someday
somehow
right here
right now

corus
lets kick it tonight
i dont want to fight
forget who was wrong
forget who was right
if we can forgive each other enough then baby we'll learn how to get back to love verse2

it feels like by the way
years ago
it was only yesterday and who would have known when we stood under moonlight and stars up above and swore that we'd never give up on our love corus2x

back to love oh
oooooooooh
when the words cut like knives through our hearts through our lives can we leran to love again?
love again oh
kick it tonight
i dont wanna fight no no

forget who's right
if we can forgive ooh ooh then baby ooh baby lets kick it tonight i dont wanna fight forget who was wrong
forget who was right
if we can forgive each other baby ooh ooh corus until completely fades
